

I oppose any move by the FCC that will lead to more media company consolidation, less choices for consumers, and fewer outlets for the varied viewpoints that exist in America. More consolidation in the business world means less competition; competition is needed in order to retain a free, capitalistic market in the media business and ensure that consumers have viable choices from many competitors.

Please vote to retain the current rules regarding ownership.